New Opportunities!

Need Meeting Space?

The Freedom Park Interpretive Center is offering more community meeting space uniquely situated in the beautiful and historic outdoors! The Center, located at 5537 Centerville Road, features a meeting room with a wood-burning fireplace that doubles as an outdoor grilling area as well as an adjoining kitchen. Outside the Center, park features include over two miles of hiking trails and over 20 miles of mountain bike trails winding through historical sites, forests and along creeks.

Meeting room capacity is 50 standing or 36 with chairs and tables. Wi-Fi is available. The Interpretive Center is open Monday-Friday, 10am-5pm; Saturday, 9am-6pm; and Sunday, 9am-6pm.

Facility Request Forms are available for download from www.jccgov.com/recreation/rent-a-space.html or call (757) 259-4022.

Powhatan Creek Trail

3131 Ironbound Road, the trailhead begins at Clara Byrd Baker Elementary School

Walk, ride or run on the new Powhatan Creek Trail! This new paved 2.05-mile, 8-foot wide multiuse trail connects to nearby neighborhoods as well as the Greensprings Interpretive Trail, the historic site known as Church on the Main, Mainland Farm (considered to be the oldest continuously cultivated farm in America's first English settlement) and the Virginia Capital Trail. Trail features include a 696-foot long timber bridge passing over the Powhatan Creek. Parking is available behind Clara Byrd Baker Elementary School. The trail is open daily from sunrise to sunset.

Outdoor Adventures

Go Ape is headed to Freedom Park! The private business operation will lease space in Freedom Park to operate their treetop high ropes course. Outdoor adventurers will have the opportunity to traverse rope ladders, walkways, bridges, tunnels and zip wires high in the trees. Go Ape will pay all cost to install the course as well as oversee the daily operations. A spring opening is scheduled. For more information, visit www.jccEgov.com/recreation or watch the Go Ape video at www.goape.com.

For more information on County parks, call 259-5360 or visit us online at www.jccEgov.com/recreation.
